GATEWAY EAST ARTISTS GUILD

is a non-profit organization of art enthusiasts whose purpose is to encourage self-expression through the visual arts, and to foster awareness, appreciation, and artistic development through educational programs throughout the St. Louis Metro-East community.

"Art is an adventure that never seems to end" - Jason, Los Cerros Middle School, CA

SINCE 1971, the Gateway East Artist's Guild (GEAG) has been assisting people who explore the world of art by providing a variety of activities and instruction, all in surroundings designed to inspire artistic expression.

MONTHLY MEETINGS of the Guild's membership provide a fine setting for an exchange of ideas and inspiration from amateur and professional artists alike. Demonstrations and instruction on various techniques and art-related subjects by guest or 'in house' artists are given, Guild matters are discussed, and all in attendance benefit from an instructive critique of original artwork which GEAG members are invited to bring.

EXHIBITIONS sponsored by the Gateway East Artist's Guild offer opportunities for local artists to present works to the community. The Guild also hosts an annual judged exhibition with over $2000 worth of prizes.

WORKSHOPS and educational programs arranged by the Guild can assist artists (novice and seasoned) to master techniques in a variety of mediums, freeing the creative process and broadening the artist's horizons.

WE at GEAG want all to enjoy their adventure thru the world of art... and adventures are often best enjoyed with appreciative fellow travelers.

JOIN US at GEAG. Enjoy the Adventure.
